Spring and Summer Semester Baccalaureate Degree Candidates:

As a candidate for the baccalaureate degree, you are invited to participate in the SPRING (UNDERGRADUATE) CONVOCATION and your COLLEGE-LEVEL COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY. Academic apparel is required to participate.

Individual recognition is at the College-level Commencement Ceremony; your name is read and photos are taken. Please be respectful as names are read. If you participate in the Convocation and/or College-level Commencement Ceremony, you are expected to remain for the entire ceremony. Please allow one hour for the Convocation and at least two hours for the College-level Commencement Ceremony. To avoid delays, graduates and guests should not bring large bags to ceremonies; bags may be searched.

Convocations provide university communities an opportunity to celebrate important occasions in their history and in the lives of their students. The SPRING CONVOCATION for all Graduating Seniors is Friday, May 8, 1:00 p.m., Jack Breslin Student Events Center. President Lou Anna K. Simon presides over the Spring Convocation. The ceremony features a guest speaker to deliver the keynote commencement address to graduating seniors and a graduating senior to deliver the Class of 2015 student address. The ceremony also includes the recognition of the Board of Trustees Award recipients, national and international scholarship/fellowship recipients, Honors College graduates, a “thank you” to Senior Class Council, and the recognition of all graduates. Graduates are not seated by college. Seating for graduates is reserved on the floor and in the bleachers. Graduates must be in academic apparel to be seated in these areas. Family and other guests are seated in general seating areas on a first-come, first-served basis. The ceremony is ONE HOUR. NO ADMISSION TICKETS are required.

The COLLEGE-LEVEL COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY is about TWO HOURS. NO ADMISSION TICKETS are required. These ceremonies are Friday, May 8–Sunday, May 10. Family and other guests may sit in the general seating areas on a first-come, first-served basis. A schedule of the College-level Commencement Ceremonies is below. College-level contact information, assembly time and location, name card and photo card distribution is below.

For the safety and security of ALL commencement participants and guests, please follow the instructions below:

- ALL bags are subject to search. To avoid delays, it is strongly recommended that bags are NOT brought to any ceremony.
- NO food or beverages or other liquids are to be brought into any commencement facility. Please leave these items in your vehicle or discard before entering any of the facilities.
- Concession Stands at the Breslin Center and the Wharton Center will be open for your family and friends—for most ceremonies they will be open one hour before the ceremony begins and then remain open through the first hour of the ceremony. A limited menu will include hot and cold beverages and some snack items.

Included in this document is information about academic apparel, assembly time and location, name card and photo card distribution, information for graduates with disabilities, strongly recommended Breslin Commencement Shuttle Service (Friday and Saturday), parking, and other important details.

On behalf of the Commencement Committee, I congratulate you on your academic achievement and wish you continued success.

Most sincerely,
John D. Gaboury, Ed.D.
Associate Provost for Academic Services
Chairperson, Commencement Committee
We ask your cooperation in observing graduation etiquette. Any items visible and worn with your academic gown should be appropriate to the occasion and not detract from the recognition of your fellow graduates. Flowers and decorative jewelry are not to be worn on academic gowns. Low-heeled shoes are recommended. Please silence cell phones, pagers, or other wireless devices. To ensure that each and every graduate is recognized properly and the ceremony is not disrupted, please be respectful as names are read.

ACADEMIC APPAREL/ANNOUNCEMENTS

You may purchase other graduation-related items such as personalized announcements, invitations, and diploma frames at the Spartan Spirit Shop. Website: https://shop.union.msu.edu/.

In support of the University commitment to sustainability, the baccalaureate degree cap and gown is manufactured using recycled materials. After participating in your commencement ceremony and taking photos at your favorite location—the Sparty statue, Beaumont Tower, and other MSU landmarks—please recycle your gown. Return them to the Spartan Spirit Shop, MSU Union Building, 49 Abbot Road East. Store hours above.

GUESTS WITH DISABILITIES

Breslin Center. 534 Birch Road. Breslin Center is a barrier-free facility. Wheelchair seating is at the Concourse level. Persons not able to climb stairs may be seated in these areas. Ushers will direct guests to these areas. One member of your party may be seated with the person requiring wheelchair seating. In order to accommodate all commencement guests requiring seating in these areas, we ask that the remaining members of your party be seated in general seating areas. Early arrival is strongly recommended.

Available at Guest Services at the Gate B entrance (see Breslin Diagram below): The “Phonic Ear,” for sound amplification. A limited number of wheelchairs are available on a first-come, first-served basis to be used for transportation only from vehicle to seating in the Breslin Center and returned, and then from seating to vehicle and returned; you must leave proper and valid identification to use. First-aid. Lost and found. Information. Referrals. Early arrival is strongly recommended.

Real-time captioning will be available on the Breslin Center jumbotron (video board). For students and guests, with ceremonies at the Breslin Center, who require an interpreter for the deaf or hearing impaired, please contact Betsy White at whitebe@msu.edu or 517-353-9900 by Monday, April 13.

Parking at Breslin Center lot 63 requires a permit. Barrier Free Parking is provided in lot 63 EAST; this includes a State of Michigan (or other State)-issued disability parking plate or placard. Please use Shaw Lane to enter lot 63 EAST. A hanging placard will provide prompter admittance. Please see Breslin Diagram below.

If you do not have the State of Michigan (or other State)-issued disability parking plate or placard, you may drop off individuals not able to walk (or having difficulty walking) distances on the north side of the Breslin Center (Kalamazoo Street). Please do so as quickly as possible. Please see Breslin Diagram below.

Please consider Commencement Shuttle Service on Friday and Saturday, as buses are accessible. Patrons are dropped off on the Birch Road side of Breslin Center, nearest to the Gate B entrance. Please see Campus Map below indicating Commencement Shuttle Service.

MSU Auditorium. 542 Auditorium Road. A ramped entrance is located at the southwest corner of the building. Seating without steps on the main floor is limited. In order to accommodate the high volume of requests, we ask that the person with disabilities and one other guest be seated in this area, and that the remainder of your party is seated in the general seating areas. To reserve seating for persons with disabilities on the main floor, please contact Matthew Kribs, Monday, May 4–Wednesday, May 6, at KribsMat@msu.edu or 517-884-3199.
Wheelchairs are not available at the MSU Auditorium. Please be sure that your wheelchair or walker is clearly marked for identification when transferring individuals from a wheelchair to theatre seating.

Real-time captioning will be available. For students and guests who require an interpreter for the deaf or hearing impaired, please contact Betsy White at whitebe@msu.edu or 517-333-9900 by Monday, April 13. To reserve seating for those requiring an interpreter, please contact Matthew Kribs, from Monday, May 4–Wednesday, May 6, at KribsMat@msu.edu or 517-884-3199.

Parking for persons with disabilities is limited. There is a drive at the front of the Auditorium. If you need to drop off someone with limited mobility, please use this front drive and do so as quickly as possible.

Wharton Center. 766 East Shaw Lane. Please park in the Wharton Center ramp (Ramp 3). See Campus Map below. Barrier free parking is at each level. The elevator stops at each level. The entrance to Wharton Center is at level two.

Wharton Center is a barrier-free facility. However, wheelchair platforms and seating without steps is limited. In order to accommodate the high volume of requests, we ask that the person with disabilities and one other guest be seated in these areas, and that the remainder of your party is seated in general seating. To reserve seating for persons with disabilities, please contact Nina Silbergleit, Monday, May 4–Wednesday, May 6, at silbergl@msu.edu or 517-884-3119.

Wheelchairs are not available at the Wharton Center. Please be sure that your wheelchair or walker is clearly marked for identification when transferring individuals from a wheelchair to theatre seating.

Real-time captioning will be available. For students and guests who require an interpreter for the deaf or hearing impaired, please contact Betsy White at whitebe@msu.edu or 517-333-9900 by Monday, April 13. To reserve seating for those requiring an interpreter, please contact Nina Silbergleit, from Monday, May 4–Wednesday, May 6, at silbergl@msu.edu or 517-884-3119.

COMMENCEMENT SHUTTLE SERVICE AT BRESLIN CENTER

SPRING CONVOCATION
Friday, May 8, 1:00 p.m., Jack Breslin Student Events Center, 534 Birch Road. Graduating seniors are not seated by college at the Spring (Undergraduate) Convocation. Reserved seating on the Arena floor and bleachers is available to graduating seniors in academic apparel. You must be in academic apparel to sit in these reserved student seating areas. Please go directly to the seats on the floor or in the bleachers.

Family and other guests are seated in general seating areas on a first-come, first-served basis. Children and other guests are NOT permitted in degree candidate seating areas.

For the safety and security of ALL commencement participants and guests, please follow the instructions below:

- ALL bags are subject to search. To avoid delays, it is strongly recommended that bags are NOT brought to the Convocation ceremony.

- NO food or beverages or other liquids are to be brought into Breslin Center. Please leave these items in your vehicle or discard before entering the facility.

- Concession Stands will be open for your family and friends—one hour before the ceremony begins and then remain open through the first hour of the ceremony. A limited menu will include hot and cold beverages and some snack items.

Guests enter the building at Gates A, B, C, and D. Graduates and guests using the Commencement Shuttle Service will be dropped off at Gate B (Birch Road). Please see Breslin Diagram below and Campus Map below.

Graduates take the Service Drive (south side of Breslin Center) down to the Arena level. Proceed to the Arena floor and to the graduate seating areas—seating on the floor and in the bleachers. Some Concourse level-seating may be reserved.

Be the Class of 2015 Student Speaker at the Convocation: Senior Class Council is seeking a graduating senior to represent the Class of 2015 at the Convocation. Speeches are to be no more than five minutes and should be attention-grabbing, personally meaningful and meaningful to your fellow graduating seniors. Application and detailed information is on the Commencement website at http://commencement.msu.edu/speakers_and_honorarydegrees.

The ceremony is ONE HOUR.

NO ADMISSION TICKETS required.

Students may exit the Breslin Center through the Service Drive at the south side of the building.
COLLEGE-LEVEL INFORMATION
For the safety and security of ALL commencement participants and guests, please follow these instructions:

ALL bags are subject to search. To avoid delays, it is strongly recommended that bags are NOT brought to commencement ceremonies.

NO food or beverages or other liquids are to be brought into any of the commencement facilities. Please leave these items in your vehicle or discard before entering any of the facilities.

Concession Stands will be open at the Breslin Center and Wharton Center for your family and friends—in most cases, they will open one hour before the ceremony begins and then remain open through the first hour of the ceremony. A limited menu will include hot and cold beverages and some snack items.

We greatly appreciate your cooperation in using trash and recycle containers to assist us in remaining on schedule and preventing delays in ceremonies.

Graduate Recognition: One of the most significant hallmarks of the MSU spring decentralized commencement ceremonies is that graduates are recognized individually. So that this very important University promise of individual student recognition is fulfilled, we ask everyone, students and guests, to be respectful to each graduate as her or his name is read. The next student in line to have her or his name read deserves full recognition as well.

Professional photographers will take photos as you receive the token diploma from your dean or a board member and a second posed photo before you return to your seat.

Ceremonies begin promptly at the times listed below. Students should arrive in time for assembly as instructed below. General seating is available to your family and other guests on a first-come, first-served basis.

Children and other guests are NOT permitted in degree candidate assembly or seating areas.

Schedule of College-level Commencement Ceremonies
NO ADMISSION TICKETS required.
Allow at least TWO HOURS for each ceremony.
