MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

February 2018

Spring and Summer Semester Baccalaureate Degree Candidates:

As a candidate for the baccalaureate degree, you are invited to participate in the Spring (Undergraduate) Convocation and your College-level Commencement Ceremony. Academic apparel is required to participate.

Individual recognition is at the College-level Commencement Ceremony; your name is read and photos are taken. Please be respectful as names are read. If you participate in the Convocation and/or College-level Commencement Ceremony, you are expected to remain for the entire ceremony. Please allow one hour for the Convocation and at least two hours for the College-level Commencement Ceremony. To avoid delays, graduates and guests should not bring large bags to ceremonies; bags may be searched.

Convocation provides our university community the opportunity to celebrate important occasions in our history and in the lives of our students. The Spring Convocation for all Graduating Seniors is Friday, May 4, 2018 at 1:00 p.m. at the Jack Breslin Student Events Center. The President presides over this ceremony. The ceremony features a guest speaker to deliver the keynote commencement address and a graduating senior to deliver the Class of 2018 student address. The ceremony also includes the recognition of the Board of Trustees Award recipients, national and international scholarship/fellowship recipients, Honors College graduates, a “thank you” to Senior Class Council, and the recognition of all MSU graduates. Seating for graduates is reserved on the arena floor and in the bleachers. Graduates are not seated by college. Graduates must be in academic apparel to participate. Family and other guests are seated in general seating areas on a first-come, first-served basis. The ceremony is ONE HOUR. NO ADMISSION TICKETS are required.

The COLLEGE-LEVEL COMMENCEMENT CEREMONIES are about TWO HOURS. NO ADMISSION TICKETS are required. These ceremonies are Friday, May 4–Sunday, May 6, 2018. Family and other guests may sit in the general seating areas on a first-come, first-served basis. A schedule of the College-level Commencement Ceremonies is included below. College-level contact information and ceremony information is included below.

Please note there are specific security rules that vary by facility.

BAGS AND PURSES ARE PROHIBITED from the Breslin Center. Bags and purses are permitted at the Wharton Center and the MSU Auditorium.

There will be metal detectors at all entrances to the Breslin Center. Please plan accordingly for lines into the facility.

Included in this document is information about academic apparel, assembly time and location, name card and photo card distribution, information for graduates with disabilities, Breslin Commencement Shuttle Service (Friday and Saturday), Auditorium Shuttle Service (Saturday), parking, and other important details.

On behalf of the Commencement Committee, I congratulate you on your academic achievement and wish you continued success.

Most sincerely,
John D. Gaboury, Ed.D.
Associate Provost for Academic Services and Enrollment Management
Chairperson, Commencement Committee
We ask your cooperation in observing graduation etiquette. Any items visible and worn with your academic regalia should be appropriate to the occasion and not detract from the recognition of your fellow graduating seniors. Do not wear flowers or decorative jewelry on your academic gown. Low-heeled shoes are recommended. Please silence cell phones, pagers, or other devices. Please be respectful as names are read, so that each and every graduating senior receives the proper recognition.

After participating in your commencement ceremony and taking photos at your favorite locations—please recycle your gown. Return them to the Spartan Spirit Shop.

GUESTS WITH DISABILITIES

JACK BRESLIN STUDENT EVENTS CENTER
534 Birch Road

The Breslin Center is a barrier-free facility. Wheelchair accessible areas are at the Concourse level (the level at which you enter). Persons unable to climb stairs and wheelchair users may be seated in these areas. We ask that one individual in your party be seated with the person requiring wheelchair accessible seating. In order to accommodate all who require seating in the wheelchair accessible areas, we ask that all other members in your party be seated in the general seating areas. Please arrive early so that accommodations may be met. Ushers will direct you to these areas.

There are a very limited number of wheelchairs available. They are available on a first-come, first-served basis at Guest Services, Hall of History (southeast) entrance, Concourse level. You must leave a valid driver’s license (or other valid picture id) to use a wheelchair. Wheelchairs are for transportation only—from the parking lot into the facility and to the seating areas. Please do not use wheelchairs for seating. Once you have transported your guest to seating, please return the wheelchair to Guest Services for others to use. Following the ceremony, you may use the wheelchair again. You must leave your driver’s license again and return the wheelchair to Guest Services after use.

Assistive Listening Devices (Phonic Ear headsets and receivers) are available at Guest Services, Hall of History (southeast) entrance, Concourse level. You must leave a valid driver’s license or valid picture id to use the headsets. The Loop System is available in permanent seating areas.

Open captioning is available for the deaf or hard of hearing.
Sign Language Interpreters (By request only) - Please contact Heather Bailey at hbailey@msu.edu or 517-884-4957 no later than Monday, April 2, 2018. Please provide your name, mailing address, the number of guests in your party, and contact information. Reserved seating tickets will be mailed. Please be aware that we may need to limit the number of tickets in order to accommodate all guest requests.

Barrier-free Parking is in the Breslin Center lot 63 East. Please enter from Shaw Lane. Parking in this area requires a valid State-issued disability plate/placard. The hanging disability placard permits prompter admittance. Parking in this lot is on a first-come, first-served basis. Please see Breslin Center diagram.

If you do not have a State-issued disability parking placard or plate, you may drop off guests with mobility challenges on the north side of the Breslin Center (Kalamazoo Street). We ask that you do this as quickly as possible. Please see Breslin Center diagram.

Early arrival is strongly suggested for those who have special accommodation needs and who are seeking barrier-free parking. The DOORS OPEN 1 hour 15 minutes early.

MSU (UNIVERSITY) AUDITORIUM
542 Auditorium Road

A ramped entrance is located at the southwest corner of the building. Seating without steps on the main floor is limited. In order to accommodate the high volume of requests, we ask that the person with mobility challenges and one other guest be seated in this area, and that the remainder of your party is seated in the general seating areas. To reserve seating for persons with mobility challenges or other disability requests such as seating in front of the open captioning, please contact Matthew Kribs, Monday, April 30–Wednesday, May 2, at KribsMat@msu.edu (preferred) or 517-884-3199.

Please consider the Auditorium Commencement Shuttle Bus Service on Saturday, as buses are accessible. Patrons are dropped off in the loop in front of the Auditorium. Please see Campus Map.

Wheelchairs are not available at the MSU Auditorium. Please be sure that your wheelchair or walker is clearly marked for identification when transferring individuals from a wheelchair to theatre seating.

Real-time captioning will be available. For students and guests who require an interpreter for the deaf, please contact Heather Bailey at hbailey@msu.edu or 517-353-3993 by Monday, April 2, 2018. To reserve seating for those requiring an interpreter, please contact Matthew Kribs, from Monday, April 30–Wednesday, May 2, at KribsMat@msu.edu or 517-884-3199.

Parking for persons with disabilities is limited. There is a drive at the front of the Auditorium. If you need to drop off someone with limited mobility, please use this front drive and do so as quickly as possible.

WHARTON CENTER
766 East Shaw Lane

Please park in the Wharton Center ramp (Ramp 3). See Campus Map. Barrier free parking is at each level. The elevator stops at each level. The entrance to Wharton Center is at level two.

Wharton Center is a barrier-free facility. However, wheelchair platforms and seating without steps is limited. In order to accommodate the high volume of requests, we ask that the person with mobility challenges and one other guest be seated in these areas, and that the remainder of your party is seated in general seating. To reserve seating for persons with mobility challenges or other disability requests such as seating in front of the open captioning, please contact Nina Silbergleit, Monday, April 30–Wednesday, May 2, at silbergl@msu.edu (preferred) or 517-884-3119.

Wheelchairs are not available at the Wharton Center. Please be sure that your wheelchair or walker is clearly marked for identification when transferring individuals from a wheelchair to theatre seating.

Real-time captioning will be available. For students and guests who require an interpreter for the deaf or hearing impaired, please contact Heather Bailey at hbailey@msu.edu or 517-353-3993 by Monday, April 2, 2018. To reserve seating for those requiring an interpreter, please contact Nina Silbergleit, from Monday,
April 30–Wednesday, May 2, at silbergl@msu.edu or 517-884-3119.

COLLEGE-LEVEL INFORMATION

For the safety and security of ALL commencement participants and guests, please follow these instructions:

Please note there are specific security rules that vary by facility.

BAGS AND PURSES ARE PROHIBITED from the Breslin Center. Bags and purses are permitted at the Wharton Center and the MSU Auditorium.

There will be metal detectors at all entrances to the Breslin Center. Please plan accordingly for lines into the facility.

Graduate Recognition: One of the most important hallmarks of Michigan State University Commencement Ceremonies is that graduates are recognized individually. In so that this University promise of individual student recognition is fulfilled, we ask everyone; students and guests, to be respectful as each graduate’s name is read.

Professional photographers will provide at least one photo: as you receive the token diploma from your dean or the posed photo before you return to your seat.

Ceremonies begin promptly at the times listed below. Students should arrive in time for assembly as instructed below. General seating is available to your family and other guests on a first-come, first-served basis.

Children and other guests are NOT permitted in degree candidate assembly or seating areas.

COLLEGE-LEVEL CEREMONIES SCHEDULE

NO ADMISSION TICKETS are required. Please allow at least TWO HOURS for each ceremony.
