

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

SPRING SEMESTER 2022

BACCALAUREATE DEGREE CANDIDATES

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT SPEECH AND APPLICATION

Wednesday, March 16, 2022 at 4:00 P.M.

Dear Graduating Senior:

Thank you for showing an interest in representing the Class of 2022 at the Spring Convocation, on Friday, May 6, 1:00 p.m., in the Jack Breslin Student Events Center. Spring Convocation is the first ceremony of the commencement weekend. This ceremony is open to all baccalaureate degree candidates from all colleges. Please use the following guidelines for your speech and the application.

Your speech should be attention-grabbing, personally meaningful, thought-provoking, engaging, and no longer than 4-5 minutes. It should embody the unique experiences we share as Spartans. You should capture the essence of what we will be soon—Michigan State University graduates. As commencements are a time to celebrate your academic achievements, it is very important to include academic experiences in your speech. Consider including important study abroad lessons, the significant impact of a professor or a class, a reading that inspired you/influenced you, an internship, and/or other experiences related to earning your degree.

Your application and speech must be emailed to the Senior Class Council at commencement@msu.edu no later than 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 16, 2022.

The selection committee will read every speech and application submitted. After review, some of the applicants will be notified to schedule an interview/presentation of their speech. These applicants will be notified by telephone or email by Tuesday, March 22nd. The interviews/presentations will be Thursday, March 24th-Saturday, March 26th. All interviewees will be notified of selection status no later than Tuesday, March 29th.

If you have questions or need additional information, please contact the Commencement Office at commencement@msu.edu

Good Luck and Congratulations,

Senior Class Council Commencement Committee
